

Joshua Anaya is a skilled trial attorney at Walsworth who focuses his practice on general liability and asbestos matters. He has more than 13 years of experience handling a variety of complex personal injury and wrongful death cases and business litigation matters. Joshua has served as lead trial counsel on several jury and bench trials and has argued cases before the California Fourth District Court of Appeal and the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals.

Prior to joining Walsworth, Joshua litigated multimillion-dollar high exposure business disputes and catastrophic personal injury cases on behalf of nationwide insurance companies. He also managed state and nationwide consumer product class actions and a high-volume litigation practice of lemon law and auto fraud cases.
