

Angela Martin is a senior associate at Walsworth who focuses her practice on general liability matters, including complex insurance bad faith claims and investigation of fraud claims. Angela is a skilled litigator with extensive civil litigation experience defending insurance carriers and their insureds in a variety of matters, and she is experienced in all phases of pretrial litigation, including case management, discovery, law and motion, and trial preparation.

Before joining Walsworth, Angela had a diverse practice consisting of insurance coverage litigation, business litigation, and personal injury matters. She managed multiple complex cases in federal and state courts, frequently took witness and expert depositions, mediated favorable settlements on behalf of her clients, and participated in jury trials.

REPRESENTATIVE SUCCESSES

- Solis v Kemper Services Group, et al. – Successful Motion for Summary Judgment in Los Angeles County Superior Court for carrier in bad faith litigation arising from auto theft claim. Insured claimed carrier failed to properly investigate the claim and unreasonably denied coverage. However, undisputed facts establishing discrepancies in insured’s description of theft and the insureds failure to cooperate warranted a reasonable denial of the claim based on misrepresentation.
