

Sandra Kennedy has practiced law in California since 1983. Throughout her career, she has successfully represented a wide variety of clients, including private companies and individuals, manufacturers, distributors, general contractors and subcontractors in complex and multiple-party litigation. Sandra has been involved in several trials, arbitrations and mediations involving these types of claims.

Internally, Sandra is responsible for administrative tasks, including supervision of non-attorney staff in Orange, San Francisco and Los Angeles, as well as the management of facilities and various administrative budgets with assistance from our office managers and other support staff.
